ITALY.

ROME, June 22.—The powder mills at Pontiem all exploded to-day. Thirty men were killed and seventeen were injured.

PERU.

LIMA (via Galveston), June 22.—El Commerce states the towns of Pisco and Ica have been burned by Caceres's forces. Half the town of Pisaqua, including the business portion, was burned.

AUSTRIA.

VIENNA, June 22.—Several foreign anarchists were arrested. In their possession was found a dynamite bomb sufficient in power to blow up the largest public building in Vienna.

IRELAND.

LONDON, June 21.—Patrick Joyce, a native of Galway, was arrested at Queenstown to-day, on the steamer Illinois. A brass tube, two feet long and four inches in diameter, was found in his baggage. The ends of the tubes were well secured and refused to open. Joyce was remanded by the magistrate until Monday.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, June 22.—A report, as yet entirely unconfirmed, was circulated on Wall street this afternoon that Collis P. Huntington, of Central Pacific Railroad fame, had failed. Senator Van Wyck's attack on the Pacific stocks, and the marked decline in Central Pacific stock during later hours of the session, may have started the story, but the other stocks in which Huntington is reported to be interested held up well. Friends of Huntington declared positively that there was no truth in the story of his being embarrassed.

Later.—Huntington himself has just been seen by a reporter, and he denies emphatically that he has failed.

EASTERN STATES.

DENVER, June 22.—A severe hail storm accompanied by lightning, visited Central City this afternoon. A game of baseball was in progress on Academy hill. Lightning struck and killed Nicholas Neumayer, and probably fatally injured James Lick and Frank Osborne.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23.—Captain Drisko, of the schooner A. V. Drisko, from Cardenas, reports that his vessel was fired upon by a Spanish gunboat while he was entering the Cardenas harbor. The attack was made on the 21st May. The captain says he cannot account for the firing, which was unexpected and entirely unwarranted.

GERMANY.

BERLIN, June 22.—Bismarck, during the illness of the Prince of Orange, caused German representatives at the various European courts to declare that any attempt to make the succession to the regency in Holland a European question, would find instant opposition from Germany. This declaration is taken to mean that Germany alone has the right to meddle in the affairs of Holland. The king is ill. His death is near. On his decease the Duke of Nassau failing to obtain the throne of Holland, will claim the grand duchy of Luxemburg.

FRANCE.

PARIS, June 22.—The impartial commission have re elected Casagnac president and have approved Prince Victor's resolve to obtain his independence and declared him the representative of religious liberty and order in democracy.

LONDON, June 21.—An attache of the English Embassy at Paris reports that the French government is extending a system of different duties which it has decided to establish in Tonquin. The system will now be established in all French possessions in Africa. A duty of 20 per cent. will be levied on all except French goods, and in order to favor French vessels restrictions will be imposed upon navigation of rivers on the west coast of Africa which are held by the French. The Foreign Office has instructed the Embassy at Paris to report on the subject.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—Creditors of Harris Bros., wholesale tobacco merchants, have placed a receiver in charge of the store for their benefit. The firm is said to owe $38,000, with about $30,000 nominal assets. Efforts will be made to compromise, which, if unsuccessful, the firm's affairs will be closed up. The principal creditors are the Bank of California, Daniel Meyer and Moses Heller.

STOCKTON, June 21.—A disastrous break occurred in the levee on the lower division of Roberts Island this morning. A slight crack was noticed in the front of the levee yesterday morning at daylight. A gang of men were at once put at work to strengthen the levee. They worked all day yesterday and all last night, but the pressure of water was so great that 50 feet of the levee was crowded in several feet, leaving gaps 10 feet wide at either end, through which the water commenced pouring. The break is at Whisky Slough, half a mile from the main river channel. At this point the levee is 65 feet wide at the base and three feet above the water line. Every effort is being made to stop an inundation with the Reclamation Company's dredger and the force at hand.

HOLLAND.

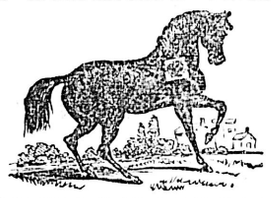

THE HAGUE, June 22.—The Prince of Orange passed a calm night and peaceful morning before the collapse. In the forenoon of Saturday he seemed so well the doctors talked of sending him to the south of France. At 11 o'clock he suddenly exhibited symptoms of extreme weakness, and fainted. His respiration became greatly enfeebled. Subsequently a slight recovery was noticeable, and the lungs seemed paralyzed. From this time until his death the prince remained unconscious. The king has returned from Carlsbad, and had a conference with the cabinet. The president of the council has convoked a general state council. The cabinet decided to resort to the provisions of the law of November 3d and 4th, and will convene the chambers forming the states general in a plenary council of 88 senators, instead of 39, and 172 deputies, instead of 86. This congress will proclaim Princess Wilhelmine as successor, under the council to the regency, with Queen Emma as regent and the president of the council as chancellor. The cabinet has determined to refuse to share the titelage with any German branch of the royal family.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, June 22.—Granville, through the English ambassadors to the powers, sent a circular convening the Egyptian conference June 28th. The circular briefly repeats the terms of the dispatch of the 19th of April, suggesting the conference, and adds that the conference is called to consider what change will be necessary in the law of liquidation to restore financial order in Egypt. The circular is attributed to a design to influence parliament by the presence of the conference during the approaching debate on the vote of censure in regard to the Egyptian policy. Before sending the circular Granville was assured of its acceptance by France, Germany, Austria and Italy.

THE EARL OF DUFFERIN.

The most interesting article in the Manhattan for July is,the paper on the Earl of Dufferin. It is a well written sketch of the career of this famous man. Space will only permit us to glance at the different stages of his public life,there described. Dwelling at greater length on the account of his administration in Canada, especially in what relates to British Coumbia, Manhattan says that Lord Dufferin succeeded at a very early age to the barony of Dufferin and Clandeboye, in the county of Ulster,Ireland,and found himself when little more than a boy the leader of the liberal party in his neighborhood. A seat in the house of lords becoming his right at so early an age he had no chance to try the stormy atmosphere of the commons, but the discipline of Ulster politics stood him in good stead. He was the pride of Ulstermen of both parties when he was but little known to the outside world. When hardly out of his teens he was appointed lord-in-waiting to the Queen and the year he spent at court doubtless helped to foster that spirit of loyal devotion which he has always manifested. The trouble in Ireland in 1847-48 called forth all his sympathies for his native land, and he traveled through the west and south of that island working indefatigably to relieve the wretched inhabitants. In 1855 Lord Russell went to Vienna on a special mission and selected Lord Dufferin as one of his attachés. In the following year he made his celebrated voyage to the Arctic sea. In a small yacht, the Foam, he managed to get 100 miles nearer the North Pole than any previous explorer. His adventures were recorded in a series of letters to his mother, which were afterwards published under the title of "Letters from High Latitudes," a delightful book which was a great literary success. Though prominent in his own neighborhood Lord Dufferin was little known in general politics until 1860, when Lord Palmerston, with his keen appreciation of ability, selected him as the most suitable man to undertake the delicate mission to Syria. It was a task calling for the finest diplomacy. The feeling of both Turkey and France had to be tenderly considered, and the manner in which Lord Dufferin settled all difficulties without treading on any one's toes won for him the highest praise from his government and the foreign powers. This mission alone would have secured for him the name of a great statesman, but it was only the beginning of a varied career. In 1864 Lord Dufferin entered the ministry of Lord Palmerston as under secretary for India, representing that great department in the house of lords. On the formation of the Gladstone ministry in 1868 he accepted the office of chancellor of the duchy of Lancaster. This post, though one of great dignity and rank, does not entail any laborious duties. He was, therefore, free to devote himself to that branch of public business for which he was so eminently fitted, namely, the Irish affairs. He was Mr. Gladstone's most authoritative adviser in the schemes for Ireland and was chiefly instrumental in carrying through the house of lords such measures as the Irish Church Act and the Irish Land Act of 1870,measures which would seem mild to-day,but then were severely criticized. In 1871 the government acknowledged the important aid he had given by conferring on him an earldom. In 1872, on the retirement of Lord Monck from the post of governor-general of Canada, Earl Dufferin was chosen as the proper man for that important position. The condition of affairs in Canada at that time required a man of great wisdom and tact. The confederation though an accomplished fact was the cause of numerous difficulties. "There were violent antipathies of race and religion. Ontario was Protestant and Scotch, Quebec was largely Roman Catholic and French, while in the other colonies some within and some without the Dominion, there ware Indian questions and Pacific and Irish questions pressing for settlement, and crossing more or less the main party questions which prevailed in the great provinces of the St. Lawrence. There were wide divergences of local interest between the colonists of British Columbia beyond the Rocky mountains, the manufacturers of Toronto and Montreal, and the fishermen of New Brunswick and Prince Edward's Island. The newly-formed Canadian community had yet to accustom itself to distinguish the respective limits of local, Canadian and imperial administration. Novel and interesting questions of policy were arising every day." Earl Dufferin proved himself to be the right man in the right place. One of his greatest services to the Dominion was his influence in helping to form a patriotic public opinion and instilling into the country a belief of a glorious future that was before it. "To bring this knowledge home to every Canadian was one of the tasks he set himself, and his dealing with Columbia was a remarkable illustration of the amount of true public service which his energy and trained abilities enabled him to do. That province had joined the confederation on the understanding of the Canadian parliament to provide the necessary funds for the completion of an interoceanic railway. The geographical difficulties were greater than the government anticipated. Considerable delay took place in carrying out the agreement. Lord Carnarvon, as the head of the colonial office, was appealed to by both parties, and he proposed a new arrangement, known afterwards as the "Carnarvon Terms." This scheme the Canadian ministry accepted; but the senate refused to sanction it. British Columbia became much excited and there was every prospect of a civil war when Lord Dufferin proceeded to visit the discontented province. At Victoria the authorities prepared an address to him, announcing their intention to leave the confederation unless their demands were complied with. Manhattan then proceeds to narrate circumstances which are still fresh in the public mind here. He (Lord Dufferin) sent for the officials and told them in a frank and genial way that, however much he sympathized with their disappointment he could not receive an address in such terms. The procession to attend him on his entrance was to pass under a triumphal arch, bearing the motto, "Carnarvon Terms or Separation." He directed his carriage to take another route. He spent several weeks in genial conference with the people, visiting the chief harbors and districts. Before his departure, at Victoria, he addressed the citizens for two hours in a speech, unsurpassed for masterly exposition and persuasive power. He first of all gave an account of his progress, and reviewed in glowing terms the magnificent resources of their province. Speaking from his elevated position as Governor-General, with the eyes of the whole Dominion upon him, this part of the address had its moral both for the east and the west. To the one he said: "Is it not worth while to make some sacrifice to secure so bright a jewel to the Dominion?" To the other his speech suggested that people with such a future could afford to be patient. Turning then to their discontent, he calmly detailed all the difficulties of the case, himself neither a champion of Canada nor of British Columbia, of the ministry, nor of the senate. But, a close observer of all that occurred, he was able to show, from the facts within his own knowledge, that there was no wilful design on the part of Canada to disappoint the wishes of Columbia; that the force of circumstances was inevitably bringing about a favorable solution. He then, with characteristic directness, went on to speculate on the realization of their scheme, the withdrawal of Columbia from the confederation, and showed that the consequences must be to retard the progress of Victoria for an indefinite time. The railway was certain to be built, but would be directed to another terminus if the defection of Columbia placed Victoria outside the confederation. It was impossible for the sturdy settlers of Columbia to doubt the good faith with which Lord Dufferin spoke. His presence and demeanor declared the straightforward gentleman. The care with which he studied their position, the thorough experience he had had of Canadian affairs, left no doubt of the fulness of his knowledge. The British Columbians admitted him to their counsels as if he were one of themselves, as it was impossible to dispute his competence to advise them, and equally impossible to resist the cogency of the arguments he marshaled before the eager pessimests. The movement was at once arrested. His glowing picture of the wealth and beauty of the Columbia stimulated the growth of opinion in Eastern Canada. It came to be felt all through the Dominion that everyone had an interest in the settlement of the question. The suggestion of secession soon became a thing of the past, and one step after another was taken in furtherance of the work."

Lord Dufferin always advocated the most friendly relations with the United States. During his frequent visits to the republic he was received with cordial good will by all classes. When his term of office in Canada had expired he was sent on the important mission to St Petersburg. On this occasion, as well as on the occasions of his more recent diplomatic visits to Constantinople and Egypt, he has won golden opinions as a statesman who united to his noble name and lineage the noblest qualities of mind and heart.

THE TIMES.

We are glad to observe that our new neighbor, the Times, has withdrawn its injurious charges against the government and its damaging misstatements respecting the condition of this beautiful and stirring city. The article was, indeed, indefensible, and coming from a stranger, who could know little or nothing of local matters or history, was entirely unjustifiable. It is the duty of a newspaper to write up, not down, the place in which it is printed, leaving the weak spots to be found out by enemies. Let us hope that no more ravenlike articles will be allowed to disfigure the Times and unsettle values and disturb business.

HAWKING WITHOUT A LICENSE.

Joseph Henry Brown was charged with hawking in the city without a license. The defendant pleaded not guilty.

Officer Stewart deposed that on Friday afternoon, about 2 o'clock, defendant had fish in a wagon on Johnson street; he turned up Government street and solicited most of the hotels and sold fish to others.

The defendant said he held a trade license, and simply did what other people did.

Mr. Tierney did not buy any salmon from defendant.

R. H. Bryant bought fish, but did not recollect who from.

The superintendent said he would ask that the case lay over for one day. Granted.

John Wingard was charged with a similar offense.

The defendant pleaded not guilty.

Officer Walker stated that on Friday afternoon defendant was on Johnson street with fish in a wagon, calling on the hotels on his way. He sold a fish to Mr. Bryant, at the Brunswick; saw him take the money.

Mr. Bryant stated defendant called at his place and asked him if he wanted a salmon; he offered to call with fish, and did so. Witness bought one and paid him.

This case was also adjourned one day.

FOOTPATH OBSTRUCTION.

Mr. Hutcheson was charged with obstructing the sidewalk on Government street.

Officers Hough and Walker proved the case, which was adjourned.

S. Buckman, charged with disorderly conduct and assaulting Mr. Henderson, was fined $5.

The King of Grain Harvesters.

In the year 1883 there were 18,000 Deering Twine Binders sold, and for the present year of 1884 the manufacturers are making 25,000 of these celebrated machines. This is no baby binder, but cut a swath 6 feet 4 inches in width without the inside horse walking in the standing grain. The new Knotter for this year is the success of the age. These machines are simple, light and strong, and easier on a team than any other machine made. Sole agent for B. C., E. C. Prior, Victoria, B. C.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE STEAMBOAT "AMELIA" MAKES HER first trip to-day as a Freight and Passenger Boat upon the East Coast Route

Her Hull, Machinery and Equipments are sound and first-class in every respect, the libels of the opposition company to the contrary notwithstanding; and she is better fitted for the trade upon which she plies than any steamer the C. P. N. Company own.

The object of her being placed on the route is to confine freights within reasonable limits, and not for the purpose of realizing a fortune to her owners, who are principally shippers determined to end the exactions of a tyrannical and impudent monopoly.

Whilst the carrying trade was in the hands of the Hudson's Bay Company, Mr. Spratt and others, the charges, though high, were not oppressive; but immediately upon all interest between here and the Fraser and the Northern trade passing into the newly formed Canadian Pacific Navigation Co. freights were raised from 25 to 50 per cent. and annoying regulations adopted.

The East Coast Route soon afterwards passing into the hands of the Syndicate, a similar intention to raise freights at once manifested itself; but the knowledge of an intended opposition has, for the time being, prevented the scheme from being carried into effect.

The sole aim of the owners of the "Amelia" is to run her in the interests of the public generally, contenting themselves with a moderate return for the money invested, and to this end a tariff has been adopted averaging about 20 per cent. less than the rates in vogue before the C. P. N. Co. came into existence. It is the intention of the company neither to increase nor diminish these rates.

In the enterprise thus started the People's Navigation Company anticipate a desperate struggle on the part of the C. P. N. Co to run this Company off and so regain the coveted monopoly which they now enjoy; but backed by the sympathy and support of an intelligent public, the People's Steam Navigation Co. enter into the conflict with every feeling of confidence.

With the purpose of running the "Amelia" off, freights on the C. P. N. Co. will be immediately reduced to nominal figures, and possibly a premium given to those who patronize them.

Don't be misled by the gilded plum thus offered you, or by fair promises or by specious arguments. If by these means you allow us to be run off the route the victorious monopolists will make you suffer for it, and in a very short time recoup themselves out of your pocket far more than it will have cost to vanquish us.

If we succeed, as we probably shall, in running the C. P. N. Co. off the route, our rates will remain the same.

Canada Arranges a Reciprocity Treaty with the United States.

(Exclusive to The Colonist.)

OTTAWA, June 23.

It is reported the government has arranged a reciprocity treaty with the United States which will shortly be made public. The new treaty will follow the line of the former reciprocity treaty, admitting free natural products and some articles in the early stages of manufacture. The defeat of the Morrison tariff bill in the house of representatives, it is stated, was largely due to the renewal of negotiations.

Fire at Spence's Bridge.

(Special to the Colonist.)

SPENCE'S BRIDGE, June 23.

On Saturday night a small stable owned by John Murray, took fire. One valuable horse was burned. Total loss about five hundred dollars.

Rev. W. W. Percival.

This gentleman, who will succeed Rev. Mr. Watson in this city (the latter going to New Westminster) is in charge of the principal Methodist church in St. Johns, Newfoundland. He is spoken of as a preacher of great power and ability.

Dominion Day at Granville.

The people of Granville have issued a circular inviting all to participate in the sports, etc., to be held at that place on 1st of July. The Nanaimoites will migrate thither en masse for which purpose they have chartered the C. P. N. Co.'s steamer Princess Louise. In order that Victorians may join in the celebration passengers will be carried at the rate of $4 for the round trip, the steamer being advertised to sail from the company's wharf at 2 p. m. next Monday.

East Coast Steamers.

The C. P. N. Co. have issued a circular announcing a reduction in the rate of fare to fifty cents and of freight to $1 per ton when carried on the R. P. Rithet to and from Nanaimo and all points between Nanaimo and Victoria. The Amelia's rates are not advertised; but it is understood that they are considerably higher than those above quoted. The prospects for cheap summer travel along the east coast appear to be most favorable.

The Umatilla.

The attempt to place the Umatilla on an even keel was made yesterday morning and failed. The chains parted and the submerged camel shot up into the air, blowing the oakum out of her seams as she went. The wreck did not budge an inch. Mr. Whitelaw will now proceed with the working of the cofferdam about the deck of the steamship and will soon be ready for another attempt.

FOR THE NORTH.—The steamer Barbara Boscowitz sails from Spratt's wharf this afternoon for Fort Simpson, Skeena River and way ports. Amongst the passengers will be Hon. A. C. Elliott, Supt. Roycroft, Officer Hough, who go up to the scene of the late murder at the Forks of the Skeena, to make an effort to capture the murderer of Yeomans.

WILL GO SOUTH.—The steamer Idaho on her arrival from the north will be dispatched to San Francisco by her agents in place of the Mexico now in "durance vile." The date of departure, however, of the next down steamer is as yet unknown, but will be advertised as soon as the first mentioned ship reaches port.

THE AMELIA.—This new candidate for popular favor leaves on her initial trip to the east coast to-day.

THE girls' school examination will be held at Philharmonic Hall at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Personal.

Dr. C. Harvey, R. N., with Mrs. Harvey and children, will leave for England on Friday. Dr. Harvey's career here has been distinguished by zeal and ability in the discharge of his duties and gentlemanly courtesy towards all with whom he came in contact. A few days ago a complimentary address signed by a large number of inhabitants was presented to Dr. Harvey, to which the doctor made an appropriate and feeling reply. Mrs. Harvey, who is a most amiable lady, will be missed by her many friends in this city and Esquimalt. The Colonist extends its good wishes, and predicts for the departing friends long, happy and prosperous lives.

Mr. Thomas Ellis of Penticton is in the city.

Mr. Charles H. Decker, of Decker Brothers, makers of the great Decker pianos, arrived by the Olympian, and will be found at the Driard. It is said that the object of Mr. Decker's visit is to introduce his instruments here.

Mr. Wm. Boyd, late superintendent of the Cariboo wagon road, starts for Stratford, Ont., to-day, to be absent three months.

Rev. George Murray, a Presbyterian clergyman, well known in the province, is expected to arrive in the course of a few days.

Mr. D. W. Higgins, of The Colonist, starts for Chicago to-day, to make arrangements there for the construction of a new and fast steam press, the press now in use being found insufficient to supply the demand. He will be absent three weeks.

Mr. Frank Barnard, owner of the steamship Wilmington, was one of the passengers by that vessel last evening.

THE Y. W. C. T. U.—The meeting of the Y. W. C. T. U., held last evening, was well attended, and much earnestness was manifested by the members in the cause of temperance. Committees were formed for the purpose of carrying on the different branches of the work, one being to visit the ships on their arrival at this port and to extend an invitation to seafaring men, and strangers generally, to make the temperance hall a frequent place of resort.

THE PROVINCIAL W.C.T.U. will hold their annual meeting in the Temperance hall on Thursday and Friday of this week. On the evenings of these days Mrs. Judith E. Foster will deliver a lecture in the Methodist church. See advertisement. 3t*

BAPTIST CONVENTION. — The Puget Sound and B. C. Baptist Convention and Association meet at Puallup, W. T., this week. Several delegates from Victoria will probably attend.

James Bay Ward School.

Yesterday afternoon the first examination of James Bay ward school commenced at 1 o'clock. The school is in charge of Miss Storey and was opened on the 14th January, 1884 with 23 pupils. The number on the registrar is now 50, and the average attendance 46. There was a large number of the friends and parents of the children present among them, Mr. Wolfenden, Mrs. Stephens, Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Tiedeman, Mrs. Jesse, Mrs. Laing, Mrs. Strachan, Mrs. Mallendine, Mrs. Truran, Mrs. Gardiner, Mrs. Franklyn, Mrs. Harmon, Mrs. Kennedy, Mrs. Storey, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. Brickford, Miss Storey, and Messrs. Chambers, Harris and Hayward, trustees, and Mr. Pope, superintendent of education.

The children are very young, mostly ranging from the ages of 7 to 12 or upwards, and are divided into 4 divisions.

The exercises commenced with singing. The 4th and 3rd classes were excercised in reading from the charts.

The 2nd class then read out of the primer and were exercised in spelling, and the 1st class afterwards read from the 1st reader.

The pupils generally were exercised in arithmetic and multiplication, and the school showed very good discipline and progress, the singing evidently being paid particular attention to.

Mr. Pope expressed his pleasure at the exercises he had witnessed, and said he took as much pleasure in visiting these elementary schools as those more advanced.

Mr. Chambers noticed the great improvement which had taken place in the school, and urged the pupils to pay particular attention to their singing. He told them to forget school during the holidays and strengthen themselves by outdoor exercise, and he hoped they would enjoy themselves.

Mr. Dennis Harris expressed his pleasure at being present, and said he would like to have heard some more singing. He remembered how he used to look forward to the holidays, and hoped they would enjoy themselves.

Mr. Chas. Hayward said he could only echo what the other trustees had said, and he was sure all would do their best to promote their interest. The schools were a heavy expense, and they ought to make good use of their time.

During the afternoon several songs were sung, and the following recitations given:

Annie Lakin, "Dolly's Walk."

Herbert Tiedeman, "The Dog at his Master's Grave."

Jane Strachan, "The Happy English Child."

Willie McKay, "The Robin."

James Strachan, "The Works of God."

"Jessie Spencer, "Good Night."

Mr. Wolfenden, in distributing the prizes, said he thought after what he had seen their teacher was to be congratulated, and he could only echo the remarks of the trustees.

Mr. D. Spencer was pleased to see the children looking so neat, and healthy and clean. As parents they were all proud of the school, and he thought Miss Storey was to be congratulated, and he hoped they would think of her during the holidays.

Three cheers were then given for Miss Storey, and after another song the proceedings terminated.

PROMOTIONS.

Thos. McConnell, Martha McConnell and Chandos Leigh were promoted into the 5th division of the public school.

Annie Lakin, Ronald Finlayson and Charles Mallendaine into the 1st division of James Bay school.

William Smithe, Henry Jesse and R. Larrumen into the 2nd division of James Bay school.

Mary Keenan into 3rd division James Bay school.

Rapid Railway Construction.

A few days ago we announced that the railway had been completed to Lytton. Now rails are laid and cars are running to Nicomen, 11 miles beyond Lytton. This is very rapid work, when the rugged nature of the country through which the road passes is considered. If the gold-hunters of 1858, who climbed the mountain crags from Yale to Lytton with heavy packs on their backs, were to return to see the mighty change that has taken place in that region, they would declare that the life of a prospector when robbed of its terrors is deprived of half its pleasures. It formerly took three or four days to reach Lytton from Yale. Now the journey is made in as many hours.

Treat Them Well.

W. R. Elliott, the advance advertising agent for the celebrated SNOW FLAKE BAKING POWDER, is in this city in its interests. He and his gentlemanly agents will call on the housekeepers of Victoria and show them the difference between a pure cream of tartar baking powder and those unhealthful powders manufactured from ammonia and alum.

UNION CLUBHOUSE.—Mr. R. Lawson is the contractor for this building. The figure is about $16,000. The work is to be completed by the end of December of the current year.

SALMON.—The steamer North Pacific yesterday took in 1200 cases of salmon from the British America Cannery for Canada.

THE RECENT FATAL ACCIDENT ON THE C. P. R.

HOW THE THING OCCURRED

Names of the Dead and Injured.

Mr. G. W. Campbell, timekeeper on the C. P. R., who is in town, gives particulars of the recent railway accident on the C. P. R., which occurred near Nicomen slough at 7 o'clock on Friday evening. The engine had left a gravel pit pushing a train of fourteen flat cars and was running west. The foremost car struck a cow and leaped the track, bedding itself in the embankment. Six other cars then piled on top of the first car and the seven were smashed to pieces.

There were five men on the cars—two were in charge of the gravel plough and stood on the first car. Two brakesmen and a conductor comprised the other three. All jumped off—the two men in charge of the plow unfortunately went off on the wrong side. One, Geo. Windom, was crushed beneath the car. The other, S. Parker, was buried beneath the carload of gravel and smothered. The conductor and two brakesmen, who leaped on the other side, were more fortunate. The conductor, whose name is O'Brien, alighted on a tie, smashing one of his knees, which will cripple him for life. Anderson, one of the brakesmen, was struck by one of the wrecked cars as it went over and is seriously hurt. The other brakesman, named Pushee, escaped without a scratch. The bodies were taken to Port Moody and the wounded men were sent to Yale Hospital for treatment.

Parker was aged about 23 and Windom about 30 years. Parker had not a bruise on his body and is supposed to have lived under the gravel for some time, the searchers not knowing where to look for him.

The wreck was cleared away by 11 o'clock next day, the regular trains having been detained only two hours by the accident.

(BY TELEGRAPH.)
(Exclusive to The Colonist.)

NEW WESTMINSTER, June 23. — Names of killed in the railway accident on Wednesday last were: O. W. Wingard, former residence unknown, and S. Parker, a native of Suffolkshire, England. Conductor L. O'Brien and a man known as Scotty injured but now expected to recover. Verdict of the coroner's jury was accidental death.

The Opera Season.

The sale of seats for the opera season has been quite large for a first day, and renders it apparant that the De Vivo Opera Company will be well supported in Victoria. In this connection we quote the Oregonian's notice of their performance of Don Pasquale: "Donizetti's sparkling opera Don Pasquale was rendered last night at the New Market theatre by the De Vivo Italian Opera company. It was received by a large and brilliant audience, who testified their appreciation of the performance by hearty and discriminating applause. Malatesta was very well sung, and brilliantly acted. Signor Vlilani's voice was capable of meeting every demand upon it. Signor Bologna, with his mellow and powerful basso voice, sung and acted the part of the old bachelor Don Pasquale. Signor Baldanza was at his best with his magnificent tenor, electrified the audience with the ballad of the Rigoletto, which was introduced in the opera by special request. Madame Godini surprised us with her spirited acting. She was a charming Norina, and sang with taste and expression. Her voice, a light soprano, just fits the style of Donizetti's and Rossin's music. Madame Villani contributed two solos, "I Love You," by Perelola, which was rapturously redemanded, and the Flower song from Faust. A word of praise must be given to Madame Bolonga and Miss Wadsworth for their good accompaniments.

Sad Drowning Accident.

Yesterday afternoon between 3 and 4 o'clock a sad case of drowning occurred at the outer wharf under the following circumstances: It appears that in the forenoon Freddie Bryant, son of Mr. W. C Bryant, a little boy of about 8 years of age asked some of his playmates to go to the outer wharf with him and have a bath. Some of them seemed to have declined and told him not to go; he, however, found companions and went. Freddie appears to have separated from the other boys and gone over to the rocks in the neighborhood of Bornstein's hide wharf. The first intimation of the accident was one of the boys seeing deceased in the water, and immediately giving the alarm to Mr. Bland, who at once called a man engaged in whitewashing, and they both ran down to the water together. When first seen the deceased was some distance from where his clothes were deposited, and he was floating on the water with his legs apparently cramped up. The man who was engaged whitewashing immediately went in, but finding it deep, Mr. Bland got some planks to assist him in getting the boy out and just as he was sinking, the body was secured. When the boy was brought ashore it was thought he was heard to breathe, and every effort was made to recuscitate the body by rubbing it with spirits and other means, Dr. Jackson meanwhile being sent for. When the doctor arrived he found that life was extinct and was of the opinion that he was dead before being taken out of the water. The body was conveyed to the residence of the parents, who will receive the sympathy of the community.

The Quarantined Mexico.

No further instructions had been received by the quarantine officer up to last night. A customhouse officer who came off from the vessel last night about 6 o'clock, reported all well and in good spirits. On Sunday afternoon several parties tried to reach the vessel in sail boats with articles for their friends. None of them succeeded, however, and some got pretty well wet and lost their books and papers. The passengers say they are handsomely used, and what they complain of most is that they should be refused the privilege of having their letters fumigated and posted ashore.

NEW SYSTEM.—Prof. Borra lectured before an appreciative audience last evening at the Reformed Episcopal church on a new system of imparting instruction in music. The professor explained that no one should attempt to play on an instrument until he or she had learned to read music by sight and to beat time correctly. He teaches music with figures as well as with notes. Several exercises were given. The system is in use in the conservateries of Europe. The professor proposes to open classes of instruction.

EMPLOYMENT.—Mr. Campbell has engaged 100 white men to proceed to the mainland on Tuesday and enter the service of Mr. Onderdonk, who is pushing his contract with commendable rapidity.

High School Examination.

The half yearly public examination of this school took place yesterday. There were present a large number of parents and others interested in education, amongst whom we noticed N. Shakespeare, M.P., Mayor Carey, the chairman and secretary of the school board, Mr. Fell and Mr. Chambers, Mr. Calder, Mrs. Gore, Mrs. Engelhardt, Miss Dickson, the Misses Cameron, Miss Crossen, Mr. and Mrs. Turner, Captain Gordon, Mrs. and Miss Storey, Mrs. and Miss Douglas, Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Fawcett, Mr. Ferguson, Mr. Bell, Miss Smith, Mrs. Cameron, Mrs. Carne, Capt. Clements.

In the morning the pupils were examined orally by the superintendent of education who expressed himself well pleased with the answering in English grammar, English history, Euclid, Latin, etc. In the afternoon the pupils were assembled in the large room of the building, when they were called upon to give specimens of reading and recitations. All visitors were highly pleased with this portion of the programme, and it was noticed in this useful part of their education the pupils had lost none of their accustomed vigor and expression. Songs, solos and choruses were rendered by the young ladies as if music were their forte. Instrumental pieces by Miss Austin and Miss Farron and a song by Miss Lakin were highly creditable. Recitations were given by Miss Lakin, Wm. MacLaughlin, Miss Lee, Miss Workman, Hy. N. Short, Miss Bailey and Miss Fawcett.

Mr. Shakespeare, M. P., presented the Landsdowne silver medal to Miss Forrest, expressing the pleasure he felt in seeing a young lady win the distinction. He hoped that this young lady would direct her talents to assist that band of noble women who are foremost in asserting "Woman's Rights." Mayor Carey complimented the pupils on the creditable results of their examination. He informed them that they should appreciate their principal as the best teacher on the Pacific coast, and that former pupils of this school are now able to hold their own against all comers. Mr. Harris thanked the pupils heartily for the pleasing intellectual entertainment they had afforded him. Mr. Fell, in his usual happy style, exhorted the pupils to cultivate the virtues of truth, honesty and patriotism, reminding them of the advantages now enjoyed by scholars as compared with those of fifty years ago.

Mr. Chambers, in presenting the prizes, made some appropriate remarks on the advantages of cultivating a musical talent. He called on the boys for three cheers for their teachers, which was heartily responded to with a right good will. The pupils then cheered Mr. Chambers, showing plainly that they remembered his many little acts of kindness during the year just closed.

Mr. Pope, superintendent of education, in a few remarks said he was highly pleased with the results of the examination throughout, especially so with the written examination of the senior department, and was glad to see the interest in the work manifested by the pupils.

The exercises closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

The following is the list of prize winners:

The Lansdowne silver medal for general proficiency was taken by Miss Christina Forrest, this being the first time that this prize was ever taken by a girl.

A MURDER MYSTERY.

A Body Found with a Gashed Head.

A correspondent of The Colonist a few weeks ago reported that a young man (name not given) had disappeared at Similkameen under mysterious circumstances. A companion named Cooney, who was with the young man when he disappeared, failed to report the case and it was deemed advisable to place Cooney under arrest. The body has since been found with a deep gash on the head and the belief is general that Cooney murdered the young man and sunk the body in the river. There will be an investigation.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

Franchise Bill Debate.

LONDON, June 28—The house of Commons presented an unusually animated appearance this afternoon, the occasion being the discussion of the amendment to the franchise bill offered by Mr. William Woodall, M. P. for Stoke-on Trent, and which proposes to extend the suffrage to female householders. The lobby and galleries were crowded with spectators, and that portion of the gallery known as the ladies' "cage" was especially brilliant in appearance, being packed with ladies in all the bravery of spring toilettes. The discussion brought out the fact that woman suffrage proposition has strong supporters on both sides of the House, and that it is a question upon which the party line cannot be drawn. Mr. Gladstone is, to be sure, opposed to the amendment, but his son, Mr. Herbert Gladstone, with postmaster-General Fawcett and many other Liberal members, are in favor of it, and have signed a memorial to the Government asking that a full and free debate be allowed, and that a vote for the amendment may not be construed as a vote against the Government or a desertion of the Liberal party. Sir Stafford Northcote favors the amendment, and openly pledged himself to its support in a recent speech at Belfast. Mr. Gorst and many other Conservative members agree with the Tory leader, while his chief Lieutenant, Lord Randolph Churchill, opposes him. Mr, Gladstone's own views as to the merits of the question have been adroitly kept in the background, for all the reason he has yet advanced for opposing the amendment is that it might endanger the success of the Franchise bill itself. Many of the Parnellites favor the measure, because they say they can trust to the patriotism of Irish women to vote for Irish nationalization; but their leader hesitates, and bases his objection upon the same fear as that expressed by Mr. Gladstone. The discussion today was adjourned without coming to any final results or even taking a test vote, but the leaders of the movement seem confident of success. [A dispatch to The Colonist some days ago stated that the amendment was defeated. Editor.]

CHINA.

A whirlwind passed over several districts of the Kwangtung Province on the 25th ultimo, doing enormous damage to property and killing many people.

The most startling event chronicled at Hongkong is the announcement of the closing of the Oriental Bank. It is generally supposed the most of the notes will be paid up, while the bank's losses will not be heavy.

The foundation stone of the new Central School or Victoria, at Hongkong, for years delay, was successfully laid by the Government on Saturday, April 26th. The building is to cost $100,000.

A significant contretemps occurred the other day at Keeling between the officers of the French frigate Volta and the Chinese. It appears that on the 13th ult., as some or the officers were walking on shore, they evinced a disposition to examine some of the forts. This the Chinese objected to, whereupon the Frenchmen withdrew, and began sketching the fort from a short distance. As this was also regarded by the Chinese as a breach of privilege the latter made strong protestations against it, on which the officers returned to their ship in great anger. The next day the captain of the Volta ordered some coal to be purchased. The Chinese, however, irritated at the events of the day before, and probably not feeling disposed to provide the French ships with material which was likely to be used against themselves, refused to comply with the requisition; whereupon the captain threatened that if the coal were not delivered by 8 A. M. on the following days he would immediately bombard the town. At the same time, he demanded an apology for the alleged insult to the officers, on the day before. The Chinese, being unable to do otherwise, acceded to both demands.

JAPAN.

In the way of advertising a Japanese speculator hired a hundred girls, dressed them in uniforms, gave each a handbag, a natty umbrella, and sent them out in threes and fours singing out the name of a certain nostrum in a pretty contralto voice. The venture was a success.

The China Mail says: A correspondent, writing from Klyoto, says that there is great interest in Christianity manifested throughout the whole region, and that the Japanese predict a large increase in the number of Christian converts during the course of this year. It is further stated that, contemporaneous with these encouraging signs there is also discernible a marked growth in Christian character among those who have already been converted. There can be no doubt that the progress of Christianity during the past few years has been signal.

A promising vein of gold ore has been discovered on a mountain in the district of Tsugaru, Hakodate. The place had previously been indicated by an English expert as likely to be auriferous.

It is estimated that it will cost from $750,000 to $1,000,000 to provide Yokohama with an abundance of pure water for an estimated population of 100,000.

The attention of intending Assurers is called to the advantages specially offered by this Association.
THIS ASSOCIATION MERITS THE CONFIDENCE THAT THE PUBLIC IS REPOSING IN IT FROM THE FOLLOWING FACTS:
The Security offered to Policy-holders is unsurpassed by any Company doing business in Canada.
It has no schemes of Insurance, but the well-established lines, hence the Policy holders cannot be misled as to their contracts.
Its statements to the public can be readily understood, its cash statement showing every item of income and how expended.
Its position is ascertained annually from a detailed valuation in which every item of liability is included.
Its progress has been unexampled in the history of insurance in Canada.
Its policies are indisputable after three years and non forfeitable after two years' existence.
Its profits are distributed upon an equitable basis. The profits to one class of policy-holders are not lessened to give larger profits to any other class, which method affords superior advantages over the uniform bonus plan of distribution.
Liberal conditions as to residence and travel.
